

Download a QR code reader app for free on your smart phone, then scan here to learn more information about Debug the Myths.

Find the mouse in the house

Mice may appear cute, but they spread diseases as they search for snacks. They run along cables in your walls and attic, and can jump up to 12 inches from the floor to land on countertops and other flat surfaces. Become a "rodent sleuth" and help find the mouse in the house by tracking its trail through the walls, floor boards and attic.

start »

